November 29, 2006 02:06 PM Eastern Time

DES MOINES, Iowa--(BUSINESS WIRE)--MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company and PacifiCorp today announced that MidAmerican has made a $69.8 million cash equity contribution to PacifiCorp. The funds will be invested by PacifiCorp in new energy infrastructure projects to enhance reliability and service to customers.

“This cash equity contribution is further evidence of MidAmerican’s willingness to invest capital to ensure the financial health and stability of PacifiCorp,” said Greg Abel, president of MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company and chairman and chief executive officer of PacifiCorp. “MidAmerican will continue to provide capital to PacifiCorp as it invests in needed energy infrastructure projects during the coming years.”

Since acquiring PacifiCorp last March, MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company has made $215 million in cash equity contributions to PacifiCorp. Investments made by PacifiCorp include the purchase of the 100.5-megawatt Leaning Juniper 1 and 140.4-megawatt Marengo wind projects and investments in other renewable energy projects.
